

Hej* from Billund

*Hej is how we say 'hi' in Denmark.

4,100+

talented LEGO® people work here

Here since

1932

(Billund has always been our home. Our founder's original workshop is here, along with everything from LEGO® Factory and Innovation House to Ideas House and our state-of-the-art campus, which opened in 2019.)

We're home to:

- Finance, Governance & Business Service
- LEGO® Retail
- Market and Commercial Development
- Operation
- People Operation & Development
- Product & Marketing Development
- Strategy and Transformation
- Design & Creative
- Manufacturing
- Engineering
- Retail

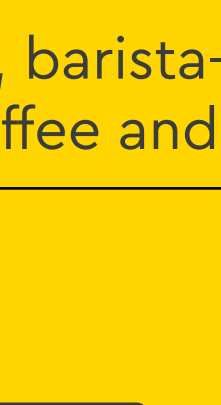

to name but a few teams

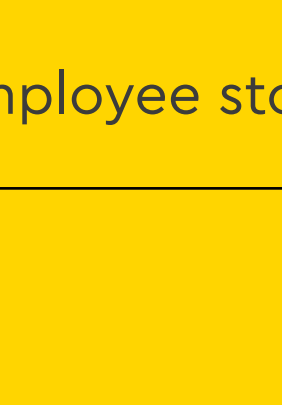

Join the

Mindfulness
Ping pong
Running
LGBTQ+ Chess & board games
Anime
clubs

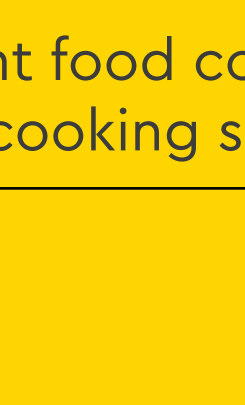

To help you work

Free, barista-made coffee and tea

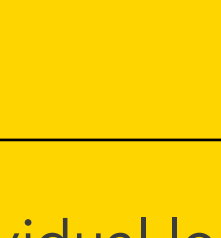

Employee store

Brilliant food court with live cooking stations

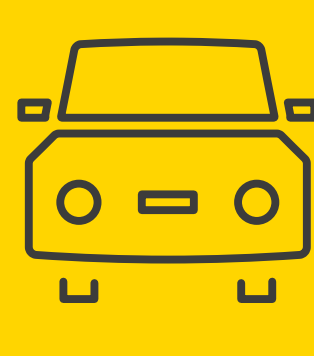

Activity-based working for everyone, however you work

Individual lockers

Employee Guest House (under construction)

Free parking

Outside courtyard workspaces

To help you take a break

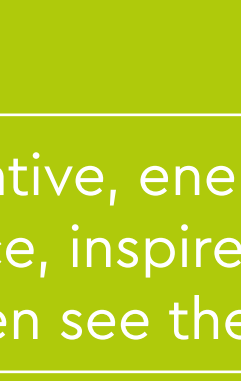

'Hidden corridors' that link different sections

Little LEGO® touches, everywhere you look

The wonderful LEGO culture

A creative, energising workplace, inspired by how children see the world

An 800-person sports and events arena (under construction)

A cinema (under construction)

LEGO® art made from recycled materials

To help the environment

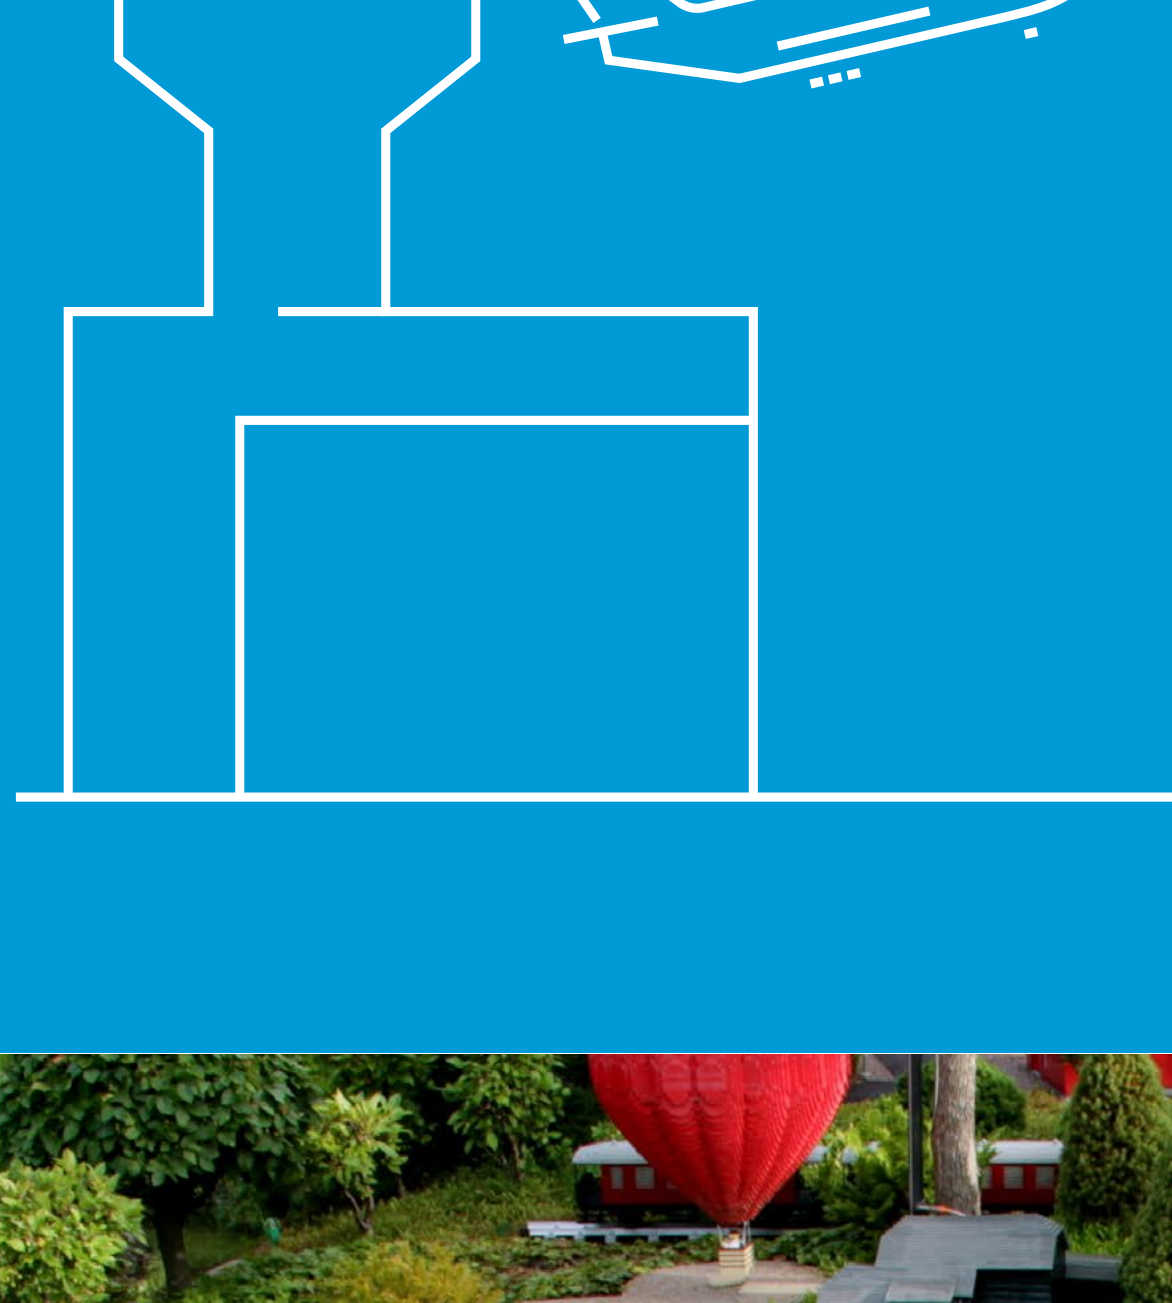

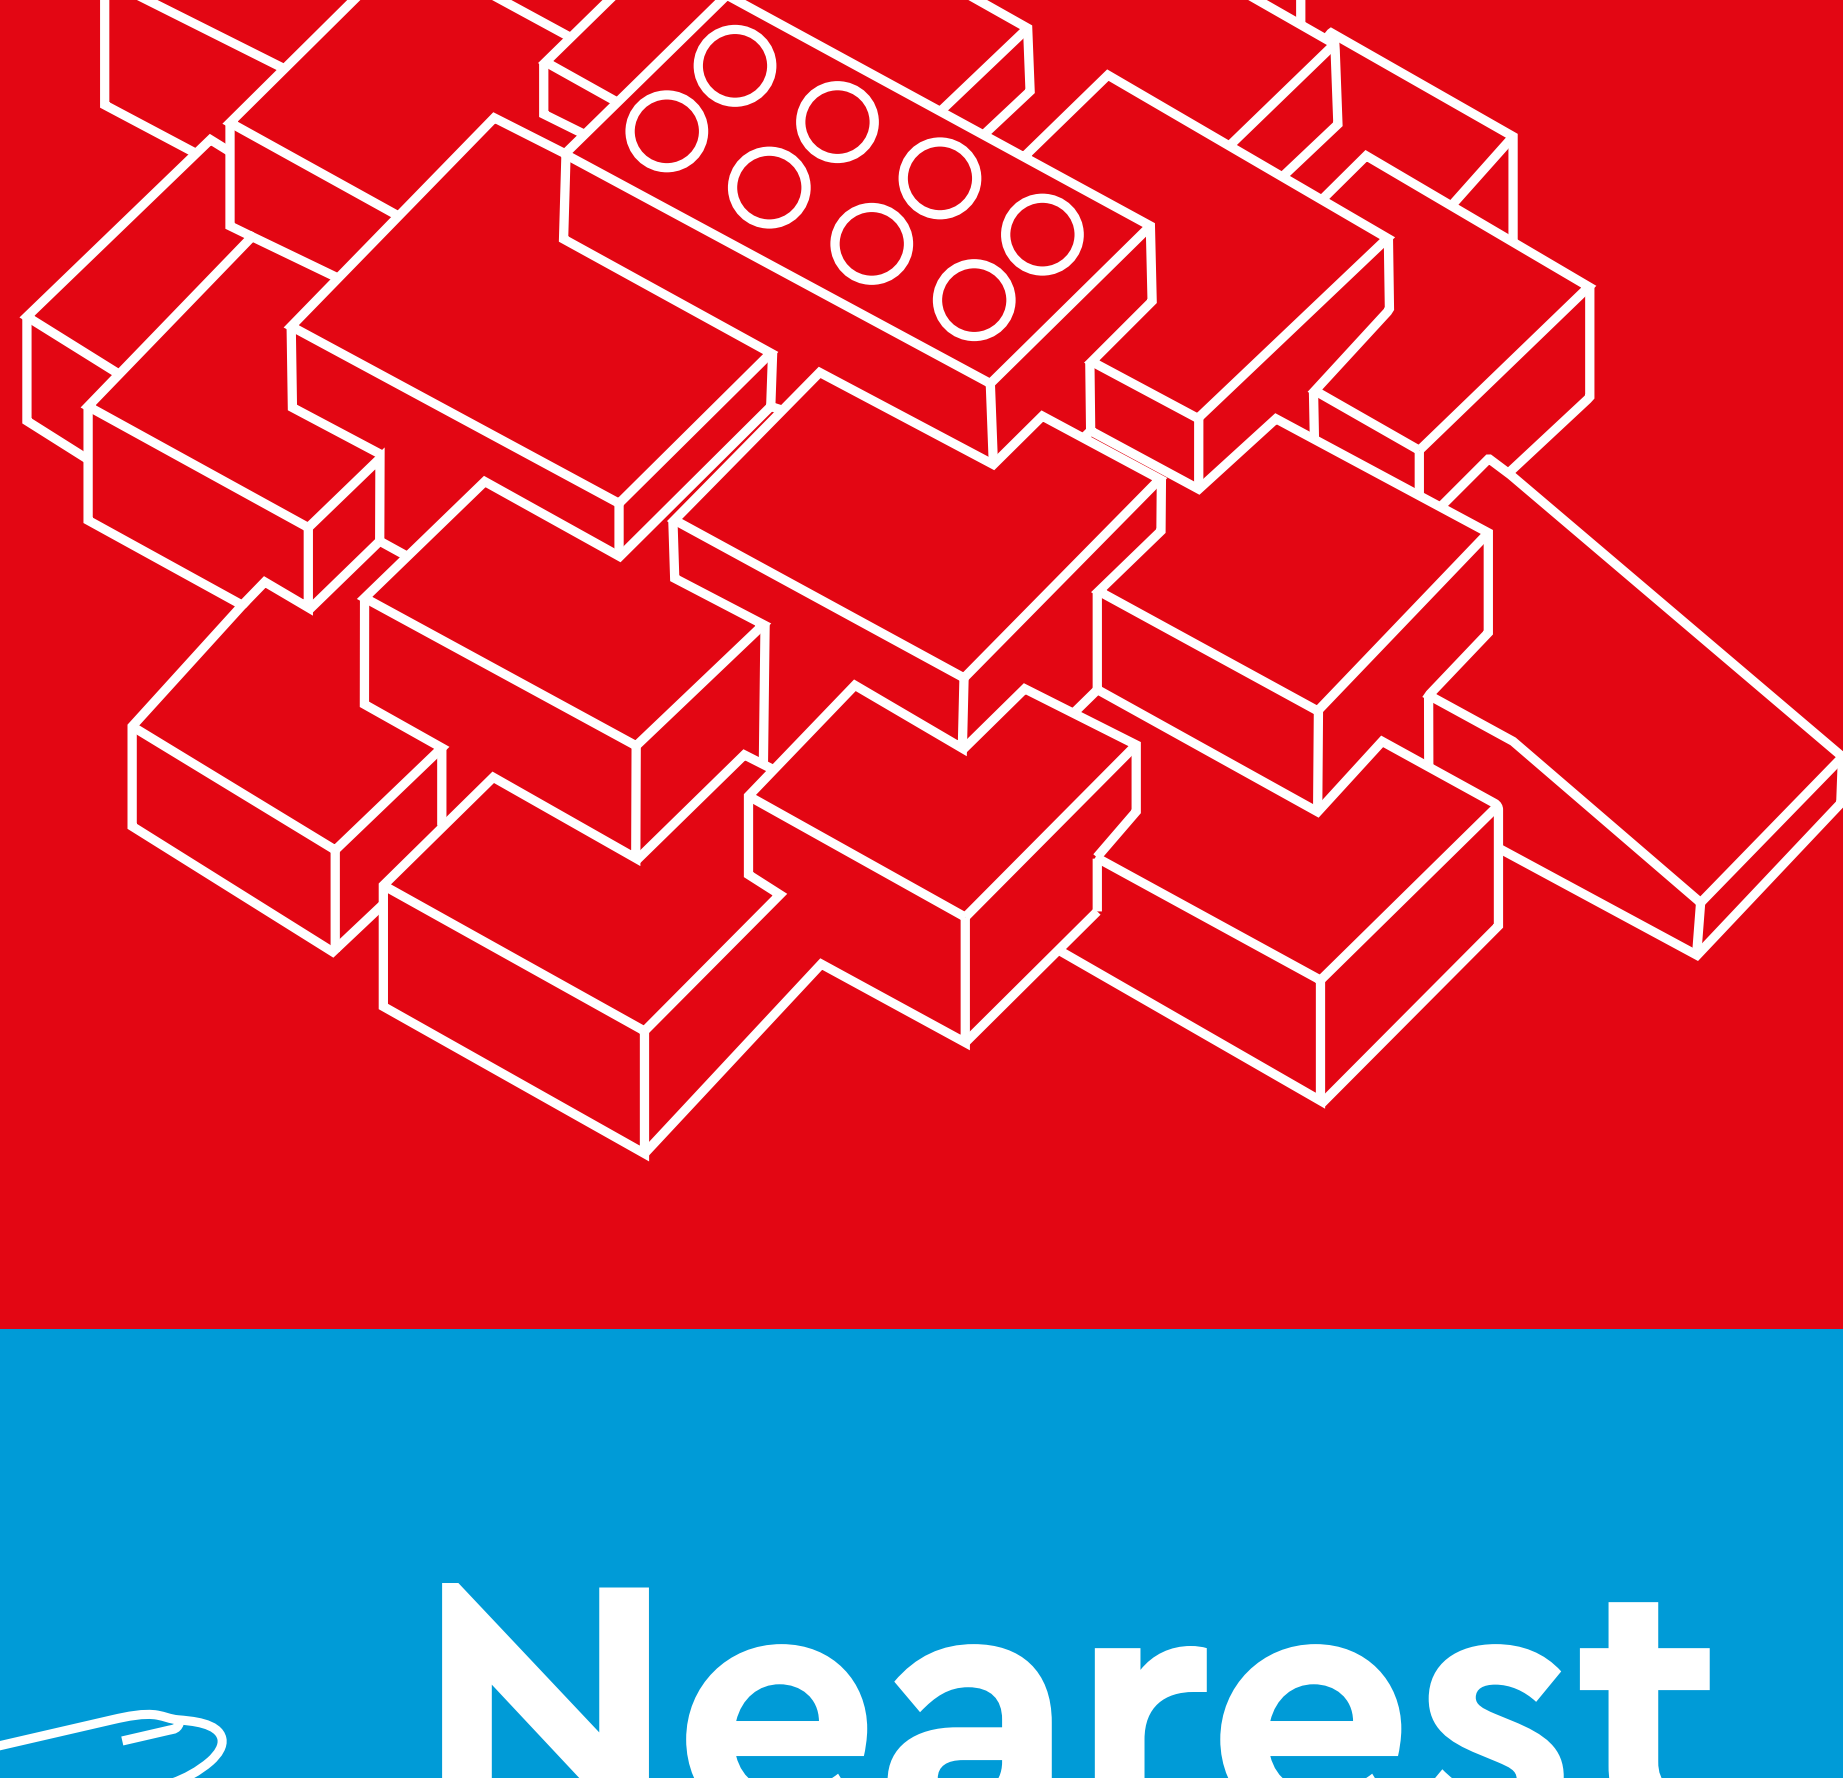

50% of the building's energy is generated through solar panels

No use of plastic cups

Promoting paper independence

Go explore

LEGO® House
LEGOLAND®
Lalandia holiday park

Nearest airports

Billund
(We established it ourselves, in 1961)

Billund is the home of the brick. The history of LEGO® is all around, and you can really feel it.