A PLAYground in every BOX

This year we mark our 90th anniversary, but it's the builders that we really want to celebrate. The young, and the young at heart, who have found something special inside a LEGO® box and brought it to life in ways we never even imagined. In these pages, you'll find new sets and alternate building instructions too, for endless rebuilding fun together.

We hope you'll celebrate with us, at your nearby LEGO Store or on LEGO.com, where you'll get free shipping on orders over £50.
