It's a kid's world and their creativity inspires us all.

We see the world through the eyes of children. A world where even things that don't make sense can find a way to click together. Where fish fly and cars swim. Where mixing, swapping, and replacing is not only allowed, it's encouraged. And where the only building instructions you need to follow are your own.

*Let's
Build, unbuild, rebuild.*
TOGETHER.

Rebuild the world™

Hi LEGO® Friends,

Rebuild The World is about seeing the world through the eyes of kids and creating a place where everything clicks. Where we're not just building, we're unbuilding and rebuilding in new and different ways – together.

This edition gives you a peek at new holiday sets, expands the world of new LEGO® Super Mario™, and introduces an artistic new way to build, too – not to mention a pretty amazing set that fans of Harry Potter™ won't want to miss.

We are happy to say we are safely reopening stores around the globe to welcome you back, and of course, shopping at LEGO.com or by phone remains easy and convenient. One thing that hasn't changed – LEGO.com and LEGO Stores are still the best places to find the sets you're looking for, with free shipping over $35, VIP Points on all orders and expert Brick Specialists ready to help.

Happy building!
The LEGO Shop team

P.S. To make it even easier to find sets they (or you) might like, look for our "Top Pick" interest badges throughout the catalog!
