

LEGO® BUILD DAY

The Award for Decoration Dash Dominator goes to Congratulations on your exquisite LEGO décor taste.

You're not only a quick builder but clearly a refined builder.

A festive banner for LEGO Build Day. The central text is enclosed in a black scalloped border. The border is decorated with various LEGO bricks and structures. At the top left is a small house with a face. At the bottom center is a blue and yellow truck. At the bottom right is a large yellow trophy. The entire border is interspersed with yellow starburst graphics.

The Award for Official House Combuildian goes to

The Award for Build on a Shelf Inventor goes to

Not only did you impress with your delightful build, but you've created something that will stand the test of time and take its place in holiday tradition.

The poster is framed by a decorative border of various LEGO bricks and structures. At the top left is a small house-like structure. Along the top edge are several long and short bricks in blue, green, yellow, and pink. The right edge features a vertical stack of bricks on the right and a small figure-like structure on the left. The bottom edge includes a car-like structure on the left, a small figure on the right, and a large, complex structure on the far right that resembles a trophy or a large letter 'E' made of bricks. Yellow starburst graphics are scattered throughout the border.

The Award for The Speed Artist goes to Talk about cleanly and creative. Not only do you have the speed to pick up the bricks, but you also have the creativity to build something awesome!
