Helianthus annuus et Eucalyptus

TOURNESOLS ET EUCALYPTUS

Qu'ils poussent à l'état sauvage dans un champ, qu'ils soient plantés dans un jardin ou qu'ils illuminent votre intérieur comme décoration, les tournesols portent bien leur nom. Avec leurs tiges hautes et souples qui s'élancent vers le ciel, ils rayonnent de bonheur et de positivité, défiant le soleil pour attirer l'attention ! Originaire d'Amérique centrale et de l'est des États-Unis, le tournesol est apprécié depuis des milliers d'années pour ses bienfaits nutritionnels, sa résistance et sa beauté éclatante. Les civilisations anciennes ont commencé à les cultiver il y a près de 5 000 ans, et pendant des siècles, ces fleurs lumineuses ont orné des compositions florales et servi de muses intemporelles à certains des plus grands artistes du monde. Dans cette version LEGO® Botanicals, ils sont accompagnés de rameaux d'eucalyptus argentés, créant un contraste saisissant tant par la couleur que par la densité.

« Nous voulions que le bouquet montre à quel point les tournesols sont spectaculaires à chaque stade de leur floraison. »

D'UN BOURGEON NAISSANT

Les tournesols sont des cadeaux précieux pour les moments importants de la vie, qu'ils soient grands ou petits. Le jeune bourgeon promet de nouveaux départs, une étincelle de joie et de nouvelles aventures.

L'ÉCLOSION

Les tournesols partiellement ouverts capturent le sentiment des aspirations qui prennent forme. Ils dégagent un optimisme frais, empreint de jeunesse et d'enthousiasme.

EN PLEINE FLORAISON

Un tournesol en pleine floraison est éclatant de couleurs et irradie de confiance en soi : un symbole rayonnant de croissance et d'épanouissement. Lorsqu'il finit par se faner, il nourrit le sol, semant la promesse de futures floraisons.

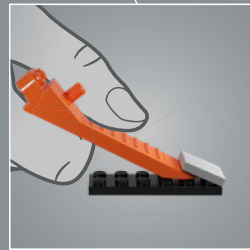

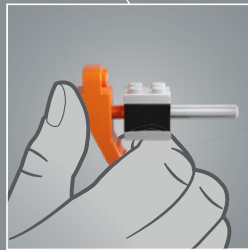

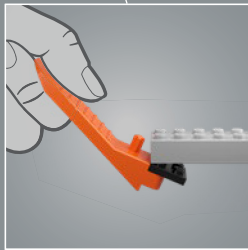

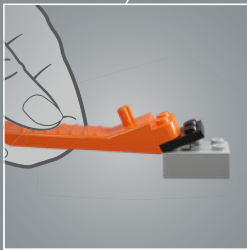

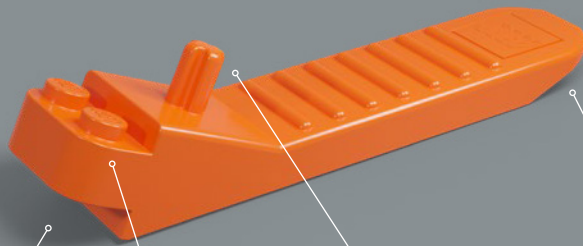

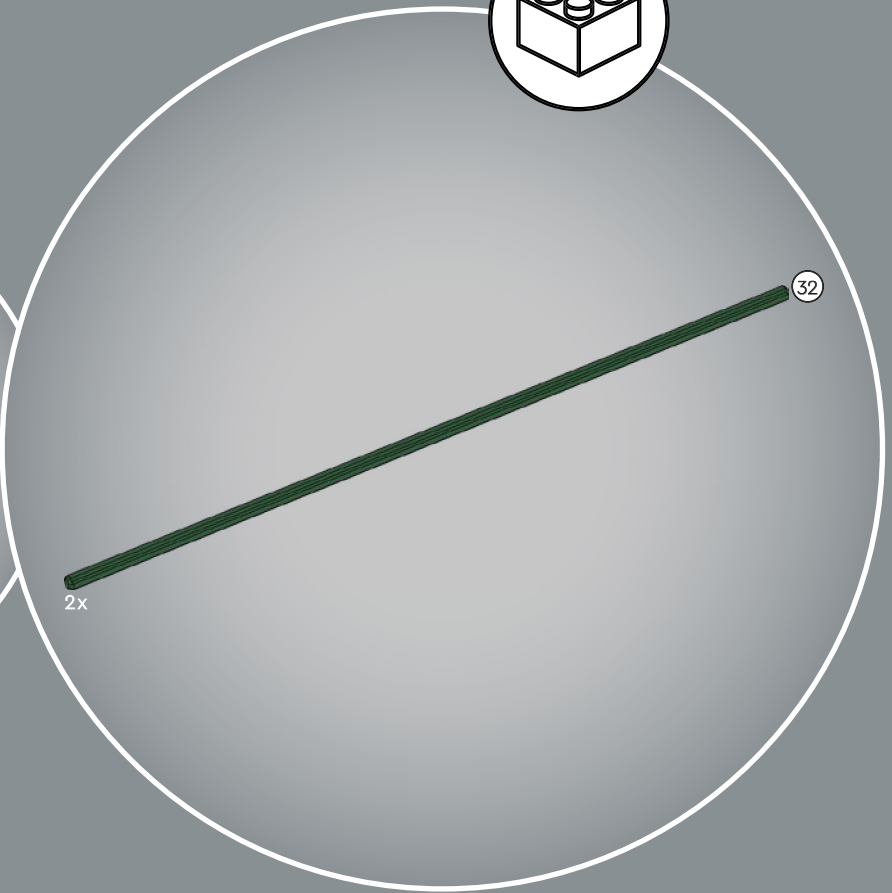

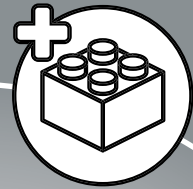

EUCALYPTUS

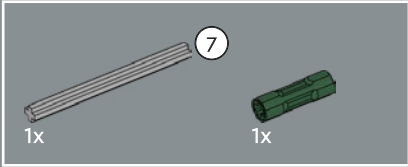

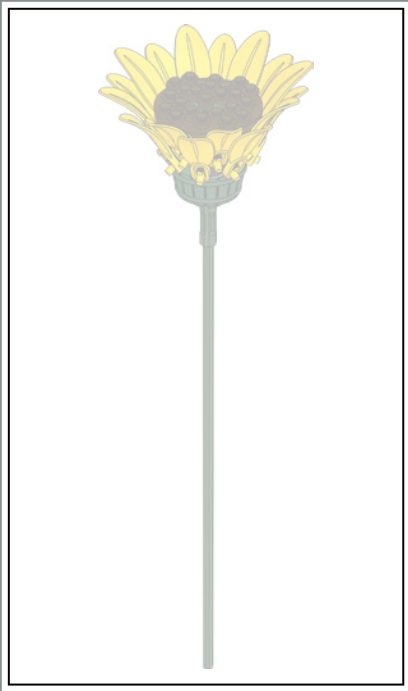

Originnaire d'Australie, l'eucalyptus argenté et parfumé est bien plus qu'une simple décoration, c'est aussi un élément important du régime alimentaire des koalas. Offert en cadeau, l'eucalyptus apporte bien-être, force et clarté : un compagnon idéal pour se lancer dans de nouveaux projets.
