Hi, my name is Lumi.
I'm a Delosperma cooperi,
also known as ice plant!

However, this cool, sparkly succulent is anything but icy! The name comes from tiny hairs on its stem and leaves that reflect light and look just like ice crystals. Alright, cool. All the way from South Africa, this adventurous, warm and fun-loving LEGO® plant is ready to play anywhere!

Hi, my name is Ellie.
I'm an Echeveria elegans!

Born in Central America, this classic succulent is loved for its no-fuss attitude. It's poised, adaptable, and if "elegant" comes to mind, we don't blame you – it's in the name! However, it's not without its wild side. This LEGO® version and its vibrant, splashy flowers is the perfect reminder that life is full of surprises.
