En 2018, el Coliseo fue la atracción turística más popular del mundo, con 7,4 millones de visitantes.

FROM THEN TO NOW

For almost 2,000 years, the Colosseum has stood as a symbol of ancient Rome and survived fires, earthquakes and the loss of its stone blocks to other buildings in the city. Today it's one of the world's most visited tourist destinations and visitors wander through the subterranean passages of the hypogeum or gaze down from the upper levels to the partially re-floored arena.

D'HIER À AUJOURD'HUI

Pendant près de 2 000 ans, le Colisée a été un symbole de la Rome antique et a perduré malgré les incendies, les tremblements de terre et le retrait de ses blocs de pierre au profit d'autres bâtiments de la ville. Aujourd'hui, c'est l'une des destinations touristiques les plus visitées au monde, et les visiteurs peuvent explorer les passages souterrains de l'hypogée ou admirer l'arène, dont le parquet a été partiellement reconstitué, depuis les niveaux supérieurs.

DESDE LA ANTIGÜEDAD HASTA EL DÍA DE HOY

Durante casi 2000 años, el Coliseo ha destacado como símbolo de la antigua Roma y ha sobrevivido a incendios, terremotos y la pérdida de sus bloques de piedra en favor de otros edificios de la ciudad. Hoy es uno de los destinos turísticos más visitados del mundo; sus visitantes deambulan por los pasajes subterráneos del hipogeo u observan la arena, parcialmente cubierta de piso, desde los niveles superiores.

Serving as a major tourist attraction today, the Colosseum's upper floor of the outer wall houses a museum dedicated to Eros.

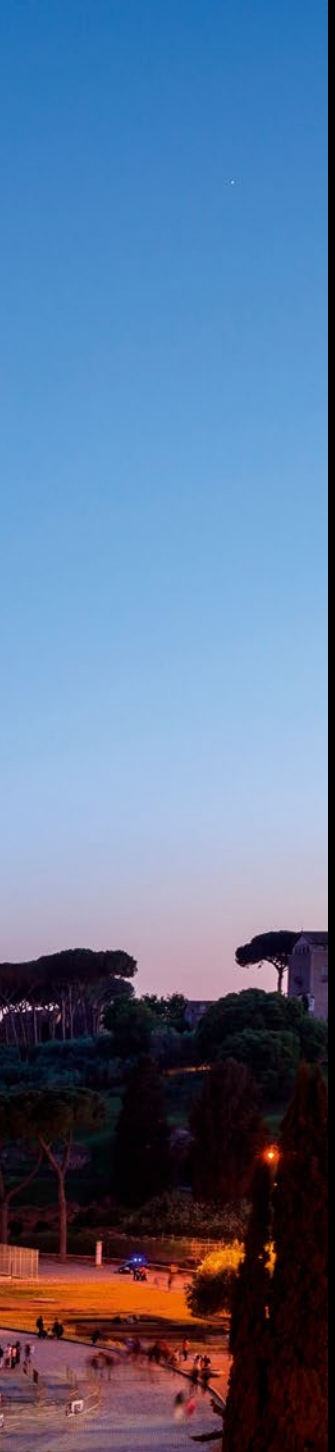

L'étage supérieur du mur extérieur du Colisée abrite un musée dédié à Éros, qui est aujourd'hui une attraction touristique très populaire.

Como la importante atracción turística que es hoy en día, la planta superior del muro exterior del Coliseo alberga un museo dedicado al dios Eros.

CONGRATULATIONS!

You're nearly there! You've almost completed the largest LEGO® set ever created to date. We hope it's been a fun building challenge and one that lets you appreciate the achievements of the original Roman builders that much more. Hopefully, building this LEGO version will also inspire you to learn more about the original Colosseum; one of the most magnificent structures in the world!

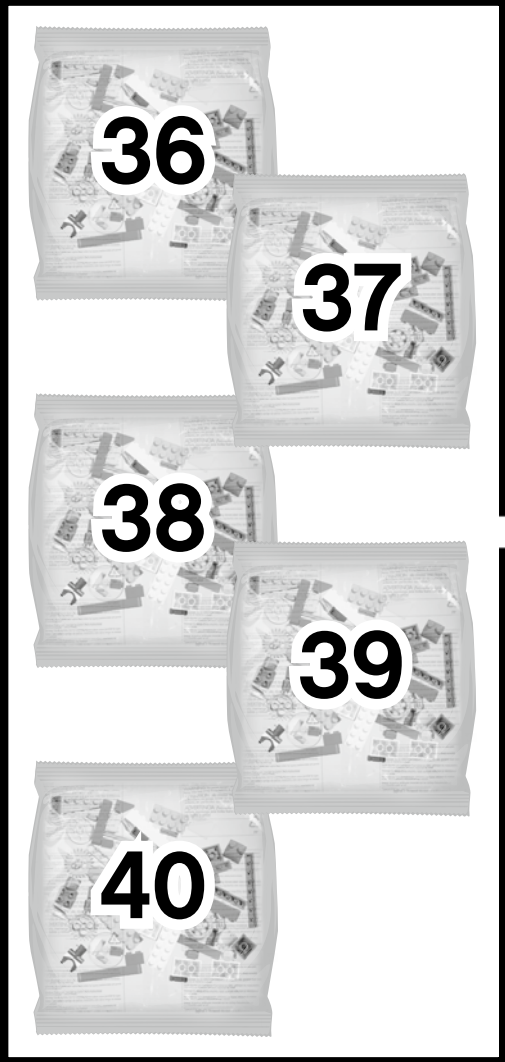

FÉLICITATIONS !

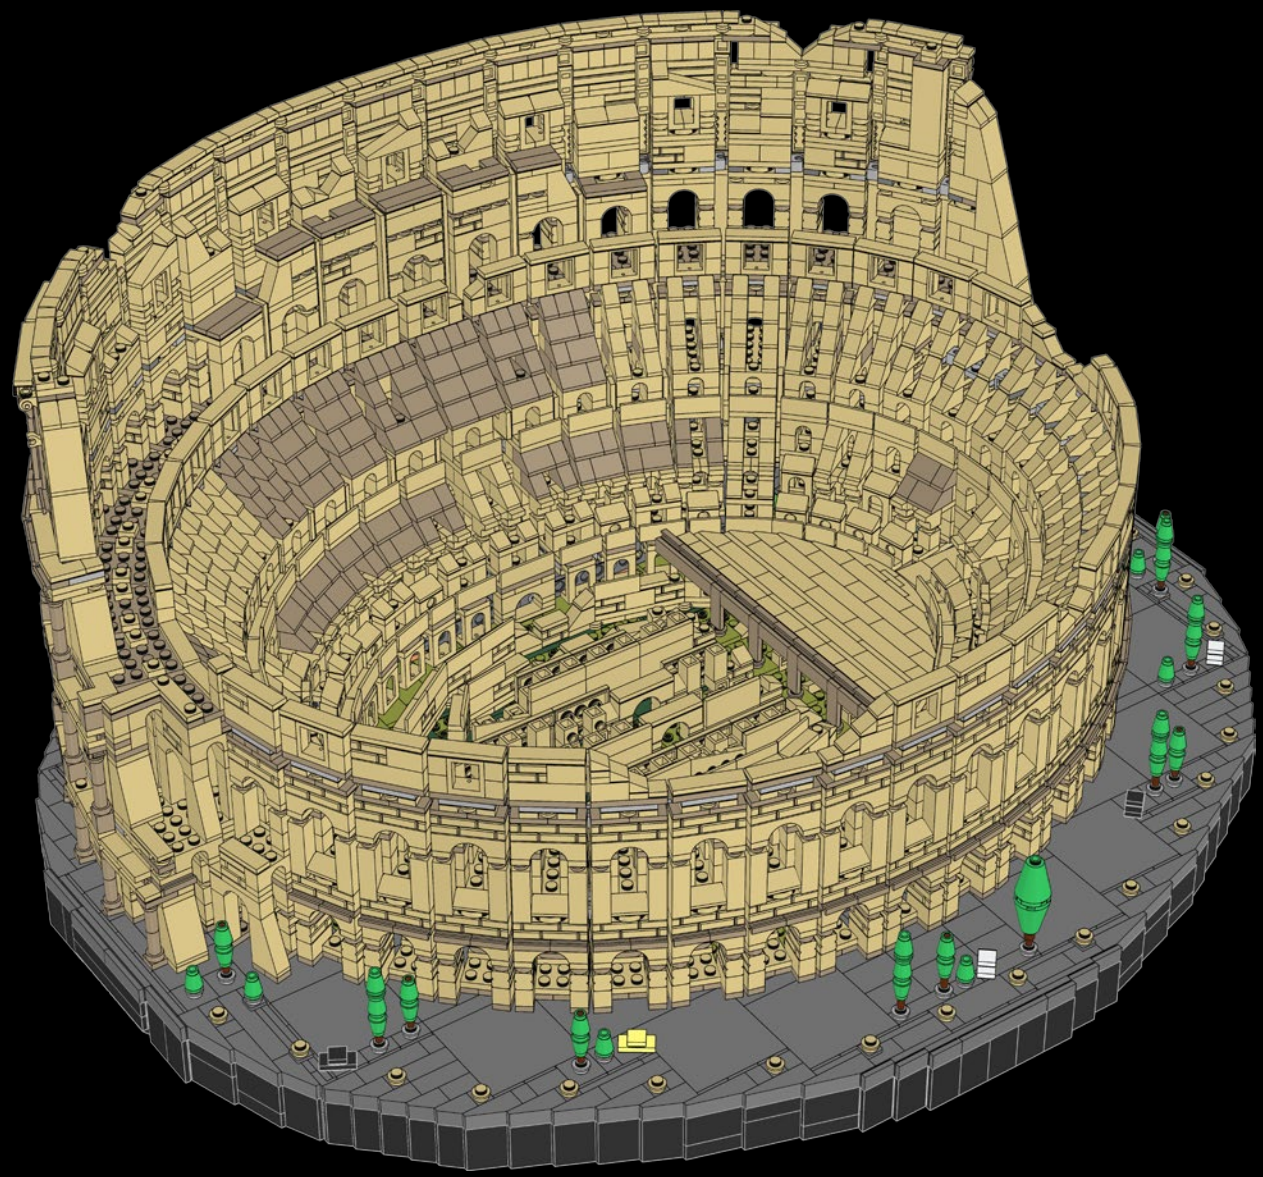

Vous y êtes presque ! Vous avez presque achevé le plus grand ensemble LEGO® jamais créé. Nous espérons que sa construction a été un défi amusant qui vous a permis d'apprécier d'autant plus les exploits des premiers constructeurs romains. Nous espérons également que la construction de cette version LEGO vous incitera à en apprendre davantage sur le Colisée d'origine, l'un des bâtiments les plus magnifiques au monde !

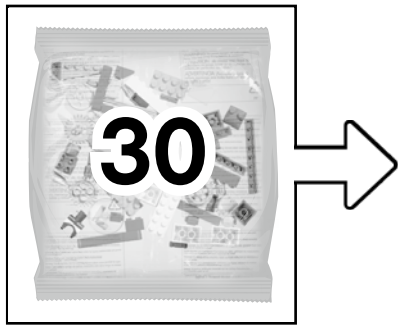

¡FELICIDADES!

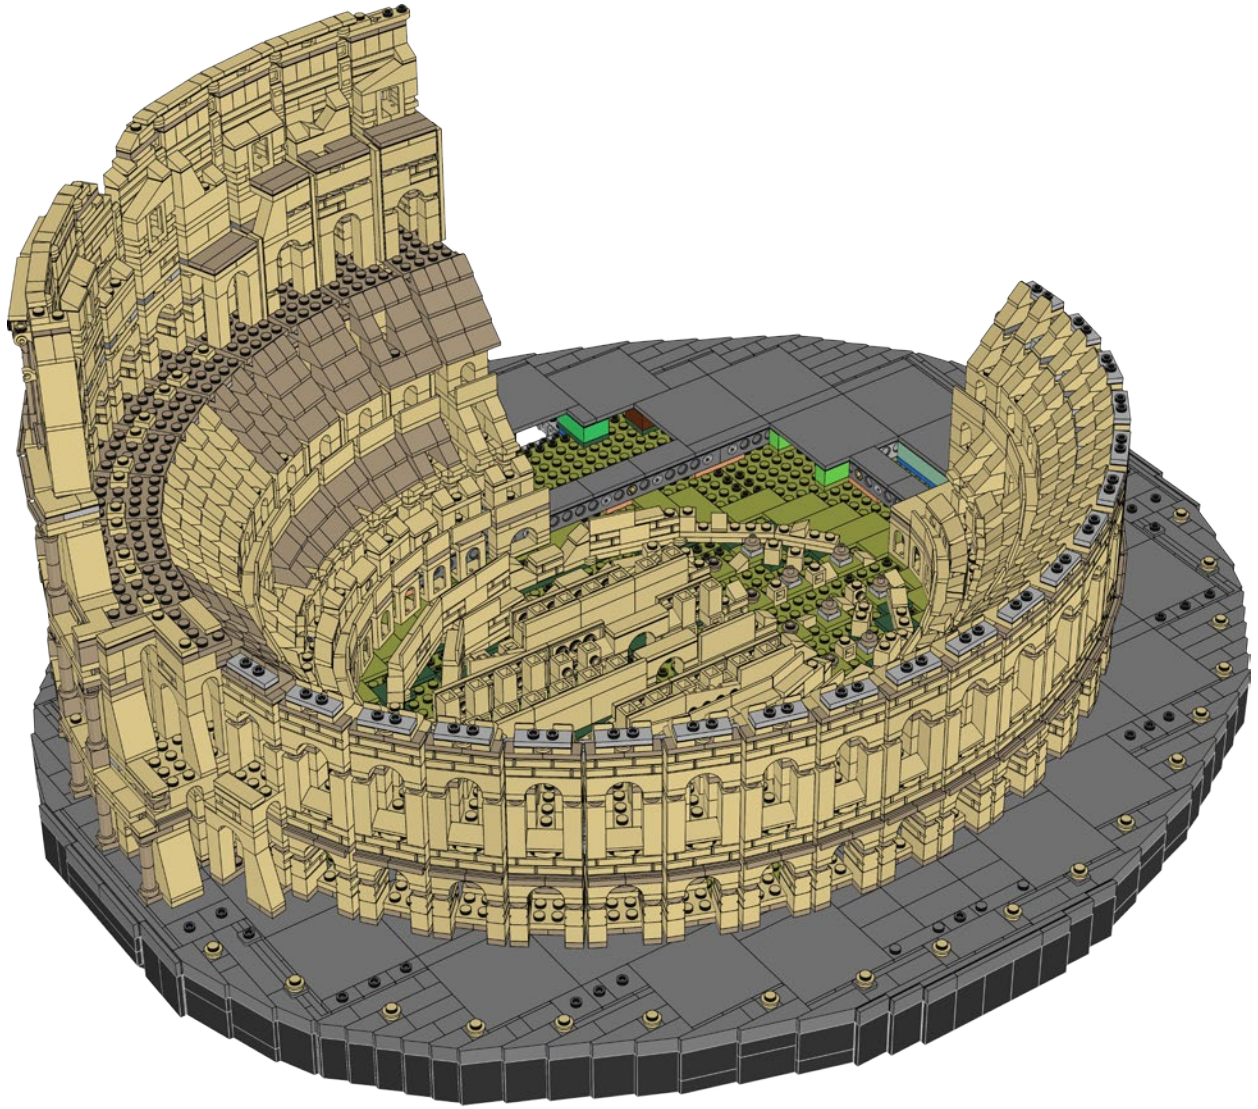

¡Estás cerca del final! Ya casi completas el set LEGO® más grande creado hasta la fecha. Esperamos que te hayas divertido enfrentando este desafío de construcción y que ahora aprecies mucho más los logros de los constructores romanos originales. Ojalá que la construcción de esta versión LEGO te anime también a aprender más cosas sobre el Coliseo original: ¡una de las estructuras más majestuosas del mundo!

Why IIII and not IV? Actually, the Romans used both, sometimes even in the same document!

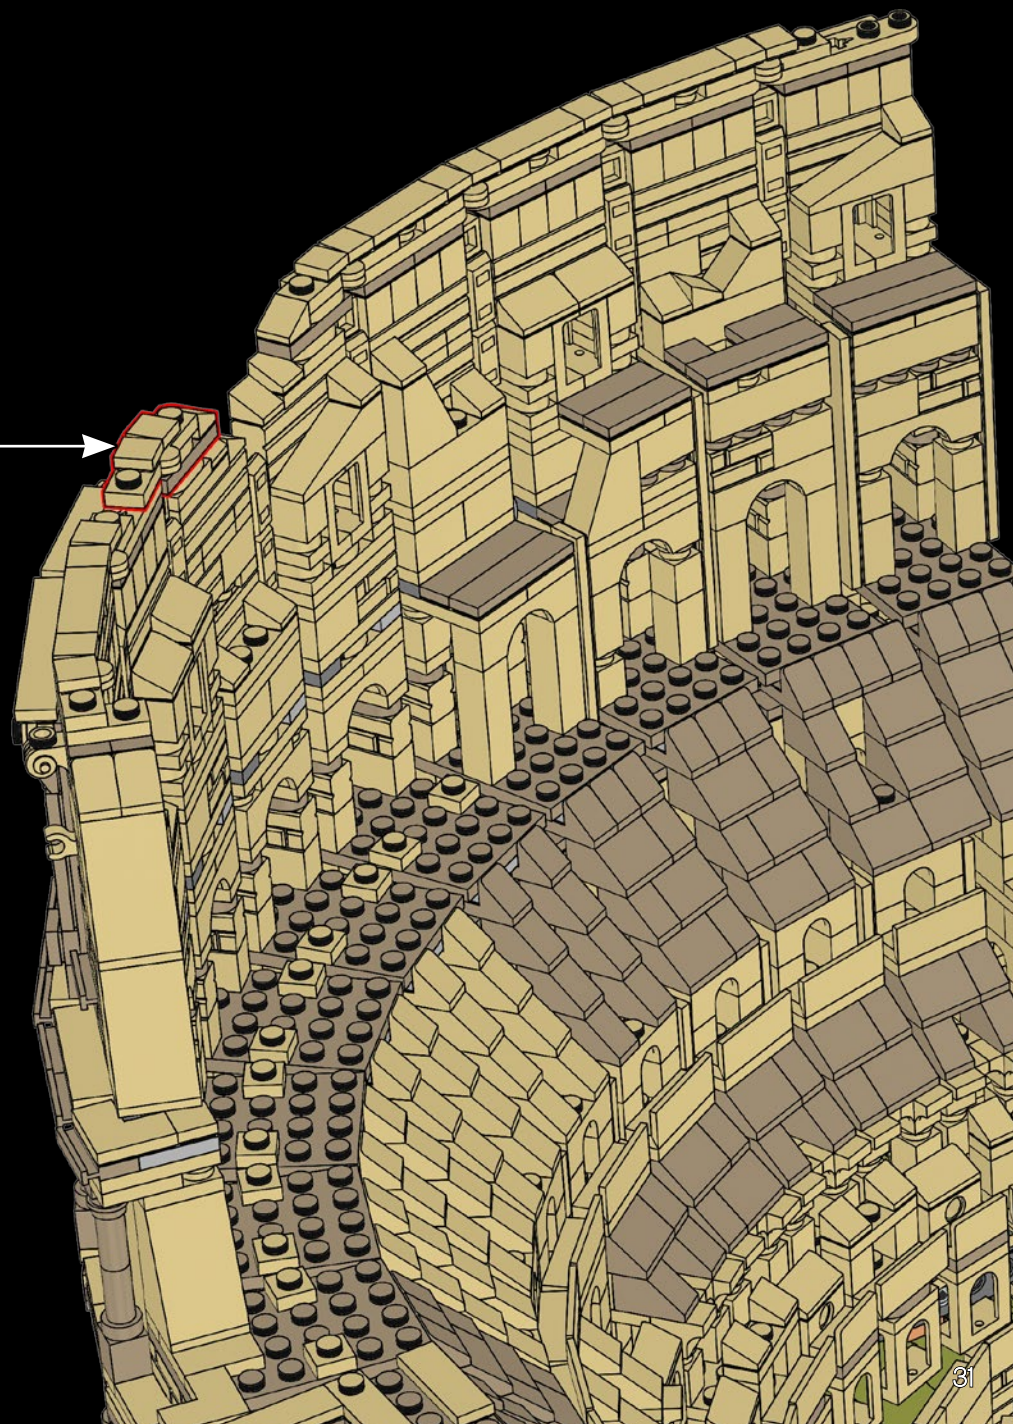

Pourquoi IIII et pas IV ? En fait, les Romains utilisaient les deux formes, parfois même dans le même document !

¿Por qué IIII y no IV? En realidad, los romanos usaban ambas formas; ¡a veces incluso dentro del mismo documento!
