MEET THE PLAYERS

YŪKI NAGASATO (JAPAN)

Tokyo native Yūki Nagasato loves to play beyond football. She is also a talented creator, drummer and visual artist. This multi-talented football star has played for her national team and won the World Cup and a silver medal in the Olympics, and has brought her talent to teams in the US and Germany. She is also the first woman to ever play professionally for a men's football team in Japan.

MEGAN RAPINOE (US)

A two-time World Cup Champion and Olympic Gold Medallist, Megan has scored a golden hat-trick. She's famous for her crafty and creative play on the USWNT and at the 2019 Women's World Cup Championship, she even took home the Golden Boot for top scorer and the Golden Ball for the best player! She has been named one of Time100's Most Influential People and always speaks up for equality for all.

ASISAT (NIGERIA) OSHOALA

Talk about unstoppable! A striker for the Nigerian women's national team and teams in England, China and Spain, Asisat is a global superstar. She's the first African female player to score a goal in, and win, a UEFA Women's Champions League final. She has laid a foundation that nurtures the next generation of women football stars. She has won the Golden Boot, been named in the Forbes 30 under 30 list, and she's a five-time African Women's Footballer of the Year. What's her next goal?

SAMANTHA KERR

(AUSTRALIA)

Watch out for Sam Kerr's magic moves on the pitch! We love this modest, hard-working Australian captain. Famous for her celebratory backflips and world-class finishing, Sam has played in Australia, England and the US, winning games and scoring goals. She has featured in huge moments across the World Cup, the Olympics and many other international tournaments. Along the way, she was awarded the Order of Australia medal for services to football.
