A completed LEGO Technic model of a small building or structure. The base is a large brown Technic plate. On the left, there's a small tan structure with a green roof. In the center, a tan structure with a green roof and a small green chimney. To the right, a tan structure with a green roof and a small green chimney. The model is built using various Technic bricks and connectors. A small figure of a person is standing next to the model for scale.
