MEET THE FAN DESIGNER

3D artist Vaggelis Ntezes (LEGO® Ideas name Delusion Brick) works as an art director with video games and set designs in Athens, Greece. He won the If We Could Turn Back Time Challenge on the LEGO Ideas platform with his original and super fun tribute to the classic 1985 blockbuster film The Goonies.

"When I was a child, there were always LEGO sets in the house. I really loved, and still love, constructing and creating stuff. I think it played a huge role in what I do today, helping me develop visual and geometric perception and being able to combine shapes and morphs in 3D worlds. The inspiration for this model came from the movie and its events. I did a lot of research and discovered deleted scenes, like one with a giant octopus, and took several screenshots so I could have them on hand during the design process. My biggest concern was figuring out a way to combine the ship and the caves without making them two separate models. I wanted to create a model that offered both playability on one side and display value on the other. My favourite part is the cave system and the traps, and I have a particular fondness for the slide section. When it was selected for the Challenge, my excitement was just as intense as when it made it to the final top five and when I was officially informed that it had been selected. It's a moment I will never forget, and I can't fully capture it in words – it was truly indescribable. My advice to other would-be LEGO builders is to rediscover your inner child, go back to your childhood LEGO memories, that limitless imagination, creation, persistence – and lots of patience."

Vaggelis Ntezes' original submission

GOONIES NEVER SAY DIE!

How many times have you watched The Goonies? (It's okay, we've lost count, too.) With all the hallmarks of a classic pirate treasure hunt, the film injected an action-packed spin into the genre. Instead of a lone, archetypal protagonist, we're invited to join a crew of endearingly resourceful small-town kids. Fuelled by the spirit of youth, camaraderie and curiosity, the Goonies are determined to take charge of their future – or at least make the most of their last Goonie weekend. They outwit a ruthless property tycoon, a legendary treasure hunter and a hapless mobster family in polyester rags. Braving a whirlwind of eerie and hilarious obstacles, they unravel the centuries-old mystery of the enigmatic One-Eyed Willy, unearth the long-lost treasure that "everybody and their grandfather went looking for", and save their beloved Goon Docks. Decades later, we still feel the same thrill and wonder of the Goonies' crazy adventure.

"This whole ship's a treasure."
- Mikey Walsh

YE INTRUDERS, BEWARE!

The old treasure map in the Walsh family's attic always piques the curiosity of all our inner kids and amateur curly-curny curators. Translating this amazing story of friendship and coming of age into LEGO® 'language' involved lots of fun functions and intricate details, minifigures and accessories.

Abandoned lighthouse diner

While on the run from the law, the terrible Fratellis catch wind of the Goonies' treasure hunt. Mama Fratelli's blender is plugged in for Chunk's famous gut-spilling confession scene.

Sloth's dungeon

Sloth's only source of entertainment while confined to the murky basement is watching old black-and-white pirate movies (and enjoying a bit of chocolate).

39

Counterfeiting printer room

The Fratellis' printer is cranking out 50-dollar bills, and the freezer is stacked with ice cream tubs of every flavour. (Don't worry, no 'stiff' surprises here.) The secret fireplace passageway leads into the tunnels with a labyrinth of leaking plumbing pipes.

The key to One-Eyed Willy

Move along to the coin-filled pond under the Moss Garden wishing well. Among Copperpot's remains is a copper bone key. Place it on the studded turntable to release the trapdoor to the stalagmite cave below. Beware of falling boulders!

Skull cave

Continue through the skull cave, across the fallen mast, with the Fratellis in hot pursuit.

A-sharp or a B-flat?

Play the gnarly skeleton organ, and the floor will break away, brick by brick, if you press the wrong keys. Press the right note, and the drawbridge descends.

Slide

The slide leads to the caved-in basin where One-Eyed Willy's notorious pirate ship, The Inferno, has been trapped since 1632. As a tribute to one of the film's deleted scenes, a red, music-loving octopus awaits any treasure hunter who dares approach the ship.

Treasure room

Climbing ropes lead up to One-Eyed Willy's coveted treasure room.

Sails

Sloth can slide down the tattered sail onto the deck to fight his bickering mother and brothers and save the Goonies.

'It's our time down here... to build!'
