WHICH WAY IS THE RIGHTSIDE UP?

The record-breaking Netflix superhit Stranger Things caught the world off guard in 2016. The disappearance of Will Byers, and the bone-chilling events that follow in the fictional, rural town of Hawkins, Indiana, poke at our most primal fears. When the mysterious girl Eleven appears, Will's friends begin to unravel the sinister secrets that have festered beneath the polished surfaces in their tightknit community. A series of questionable scientific experiments have spun out of control, rifts to an alternate reality have opened and the consequences are devastating. Nearly a decade and five successful seasons later, the Upside Down still gives us chills! Fans of all ages have joined this whirlwind adventure, drawn in by the show's mix of 80s nostalgia, coming-of-age charm and supernatural horror. In Season 5 the stakes are higher than ever, and our heroes come together to fight one final, epic battle. It's time to defeat the Mind Flayer and the Upside Down and save their hometown, once and for all.

THE CREEL HOUSE

Featuring in seasons 4 and 5 of the Netflix series and the more recent stage production Stranger Things: The First Shadow, the ominous Creel House plays a crucial role in the events that shape the present and future of both Hawkins and our heroes. By Season 5, hauntings of its past have grown to cataclysmic proportions, and rifts to the Upside Down have opened. On the verge of the final battle, lines between dimensions are crumbling. Step inside, look around, but whatever you do, don't make yourself at home.

ENTER AT YOUR OWN RISK

1959: The Creel family moves into their dream home, but before long, the family experiences a series of unsettling events resulting from Henry's disturbing actions.

1979: Eleven defeats Henry, banishing him to an alternate dimension. Here, he recognises the Mind Flayer from his visions, realising that this is what he was destined for all along.

1986: Dividing into groups, the gang prepares to attack Vecna on all fronts in a final showdown. As Vecna opens the fourth and final gate, stranger things get even stranger...

1986: Vecna moves to open the remaining gates. Meanwhile, the team discovers a gate to the Upside Down with hopes of finding Vecna, thanks to Dustin's brilliant mind – and malfunctioning compass.

Hive Mind

1983: Before her escape, Eleven opens the rift to the Upside Down from inside Hawkins National Laboratory. Vecna prepares to set his plans in motion. Will Byers vanishes on his way home through Mirkwood.

1986: Vecna opens the first of four gates by completing his first attack. The team becomes aware of Vecna's existence after a tragedy involving strangely familiar signs, including flickering lights.

1986: After the team uses music to help Max escape from Vecna, Max draws what she saw in Vecna's Mind Lair. Nancy recognises it as the Creel House. The group breaks into the house, where Max finds the grandfather clock from her visions.

1986: Hoping to get to the bottom of the tragedy, Nancy and Robin discover a possible connection with the Creel House. During their visit with Victor Creel, they learn that music may save those cursed by Vecna.

FROM THE LEGO® ICONS DESIGN TEAM

"We wanted to celebrate the essence of Stranger Things, and the Creel House is where Henry first discovers his powers. This is the first-ever transforming LEGO® house set; the model can shift from the dilapidated 80s version of the house to an imagined 'exploded' version, revealing a look into the Mind Lair we see in Seasons 4 and 5 – all while optimising interior space and details. The transformation function is not seen in the show, but it allowed us to portray the house in its various states and realities.

"The house also hosts a charming cast of characters and lots of references to the show. You can find traces of Henry's spider obsession and his mind flayer sketch, Robin's brick that broke the rose window, Lucas's boombox, Max's cassette tape and even a newspaper headline with a hint to the stage production."

FRIENDS DON'T LIE

At the centre of the Stranger Things saga is a lovable group of young teens who form an unbreakable bond through their trials. Driven by loyalty, companionship and unique skill sets, they become a formidable team. Unprepared for the hardships they must overcome, they rise to every challenge, willing to make the ultimate sacrifice to save their hometown – and the world. With unwavering support from family and unexpected allies, they tackle the Upside-Down horrors with equal parts humour, wit and grit.

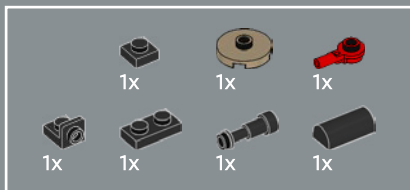

"This place--my home--is now your home, too.
Your... Sanctuary." – Henry Creel
