The horse is a strong and enterprising spiritual totem in Chinese culture. As the leader of the six domestic animals of ancient times, the horse is not only a loyal and brave partner who gallops across the world, but also a symbol of auspiciousness. As a result, horses have always been depicted in Chinese traditional paintings. In the Spring Festival, the painting with horses galloping symbolises the progressive attitude of ringing out the old year and ringing in the new. It represents 'success', expressing good wishes for a new and prosperous year.
