MEET THE LEGO® FAN DESIGNER

Brent Waller (LEGO® Ideas name WetWired) is a truly gifted Fan Designer from Brisbane, Australia. With this winning contribution to the Build Your Nostalgia – 90s Throwback! challenge, he is the first person ever to have three LEGO Ideas models released as official sets.

LEGO® Ideas Fan Designer Brent Waller

"LEGO building is my creative outlet and a way to challenge my skills. During the 90s, I grew out of my LEGO childhood and moved on to computers, basketball, music and The X-Files. From the moment I saw an ad for the show, I was hooked. I first created Mulder's office in 2015, shared it on my Flickr page and it went viral. Fast forward to 2019. I made some improvements and submitted it to LEGO Ideas; it reached 10,000 votes but ultimately wasn't selected. For this challenge (2025), I wanted to create a build that encompassed the show in one easily recognisable design, with familiar, recurring elements – a spooky forest, aliens and a UFO inspired by the Alien Recovered Vehicle from season 1, episode 2. Seeing it released is amazing, I am still pinching myself. The feedback I've had from The X-Files and LEGO fan communities is what I will remember the most."

Brent's winning submission

THE TRUTH IS OUT THERE

Premiering in 1993, The X-Files quickly turned into a global cultural phenomenon. With each new case that FBI Agents Dana Scully and Fox Mulder investigated, audiences encountered something truly unique for TV. The series delved into a wide range of supernatural subjects, intriguing characters and exceptional antagonists. But its central hook was an elaborate government conspiracy surrounding the possible presence of extraterrestrial life. Storylines "inspired by actual documented accounts" lent the show an air of credibility, and every episode left us wondering just how much of it could have happened. If the truth about alien life was finally about to be revealed, we wanted a front-row seat! Along the way, we became invested in Mulder's mission, driven by the childhood trauma of witnessing the apparent alien abduction of his sister. Scully, initially assigned to The X-Files to debunk Mulder's work, gradually saw her rational, scientific world view challenged, causing her to question her own beliefs.

*"SORRY,
NOBODY DOWN
HERE BUT THE FBI'S MOST UNWANTED."*

THE X FILES

A BRICK REMAKE OF A SMASH HIT

Brent Waller's fan model celebrates The X-Files by combining two dioramas in a creative way: the forest/UFO scene above, with Fox Mulder's basement office at the FBI headquarters in Washington, DC below. Framed as if the office is in a cavern beneath the forest floor, it allows the two scenes to coexist in the same space. In this version, you can display them stacked, side-by side, or in entirely separate rooms. Mulder's desk section can be removed and displayed as a vignette, and you can pose the LEGO® minifigure characters to recreate memorable scenes from the series.

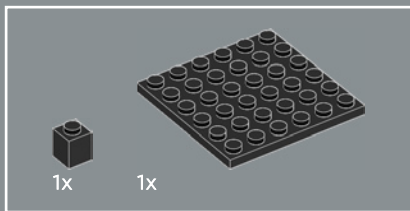

FROM THE LEGO® DESIGN TEAM

Contrary to Mulder and Scully's investigations, in our work as LEGO® designers, the laws of physics do apply. Well, usually. But that wasn't going to stop us from building a hovering UFO. The triangular shape with 60° angles posed a unique design challenge! We locked the outer shell to the core using a clever technique – three golden rings function as spacers to keep the core perfectly centred. In addition, flexible spike elements fill in the upper contours to create a three-sided pyramid. We carefully studied the proportions of Mulder's office and designed it to (roughly) match minifigure scale. It reflects his characteristic 'controlled chaos' of files, folders, books and boxes stacked just about everywhere, and the iconic 'I WANT TO BELIEVE' poster. And you'll find nods to specific episodes, characters and plot points; for example, one of the VHS tapes in Mulder's office is Brent's favourite The X-Files episode, Wetwired. He liked the episode so much he even used the title as his LEGO Ideas name! Now, are you ready to believe?
