This diagram shows the assembly of a vertical structure. A sub-assembly, outlined in red, is being lowered into place. This sub-assembly consists of a grey top section with a blue and yellow internal mechanism, a green and blue middle section, and a white and yellow base. It is being aligned with a larger grey base structure that has a blue and yellow internal mechanism. A black arrow points from the left towards the sub-assembly. A small LEGO minifigure is shown at the bottom right for scale.
